

Chemical Strike Team Training
Milford Haven, 19-20 March 2002

Team in splash protection suits and breathing apparatus mounting lighting equipment

After having carried the gear on the deck, the team (in total protection suits) is preparing unloading operations for a chemical tank

The pump is being connected to the power pack and main hose prior to being introduced into the tank.